A trunk call was booked to Lucknow and it is ascertained that the line is out of order and it may not be possible to contact to-day. However the call is kept on and as soon as it is clear, it will be possible to speak. Meanwhile, the Assistant Secretary suggests that an express and immediate telegram may be sent to the Chief Secretary to U.P. Govt., Lucknow giving full details of our letter of 20th April as the letter has been addressed to Allahabad instead of Lucknow. Later we may speak over the telephone also.

Orders are solicited in the matter.
